4-H MIGHTY MONDAY JOURNEY TO THE STARS

Monday, October 19, 6:00 - 7:30 PM

Join us as we explore the starry skies above us here on Earth!

Participants will dive into the world of astronomy, as we identify and learn about the origins of common constellations in the sky. We will also take a look at our closest neighbor, the moon, and learn about its different phases. Participants can follow along to make two fun, hands-on projects with common materials found at home.

This program is FREE and open to all youth. Delivered via Zoom.

For info & to register, click HERE. Registration deadline is Sunday, October 18.

EASY-BAKE OVEN CHALLENGE @ THE STRONG

JOIN NJ 4-H FOR A SPECIAL WEBINAR:

Parenting During a Pandemic How to Keep Your Sanity presented by Rutgers Professor Dr. Maurice Elias Tuesday, October 20 at 7 p.m.

Dr. Elias will offer advice on how to cope with and make the best of a new way of life caused by the pandemic. Learn four principles of emotionally intelligent parenting that will help all family members in your household—and in your bubble—to stay positive, deal with school issues, and preserve your relationships.

Dr. Elias, a professor of psychology and director of the Social-Emotional and Character Development Lab at Rutgers University–New Brunswick. He has authored numerous parenting books including, Emotionally Intelligent Parenting, The Joys and Oys of Parenting and Talking Treasure-- a set of EQ-building stories for parents to read to young children.

Register for the webinar at <https://go.rutgers.edu/6jayfe9q>.

You will have an opportunity during the registration process to submit questions for Dr. Elias.
