

Cornell Equine Seminar Series

HOOF CARE FROM THE GROUND UP

AN INTRODUCTION TO FARRIERY

Presented by Steve Kraus

Certified Journeyman Farrier, Head of Farrier Services

Don't miss the next seminar in the series!!!

December 11, 2018 @7:00pm

146 Morrison Hall is located on the Cornell Campus at the corner of Judd Falls Rd. and Tower Rd.

Use 48 Judd Falls Rd., Ithaca, NY 14853 as a GPS address

Attendees can park for free in the lots adjacent to Morrison Hall which are to the east and south of the building.

SECOND TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH

Come learn about equine health and management topics from Cornell's equine experts!

Cornell University
Equine Hospital

Cornell Cooperative Extension

Cornell Equine Seminar Series

Mark your calendars*

December 11, 2018 Steve Kraus – Certified Journeyman Farrier, Head of Farrier Services	Hoof care from the ground up – an introduction to farriery
January 8, 2019 Dr. Mariana Diel de Amorim – Cornell Reproductive Medicine Specialist	What to expect when you are expecting- caring for your pregnant mare and foal
February 12, 2019 Cornell Equine Vets and Staff *Location: Cornell University Equine Hospital 930 Campus Rd. Ithaca NY 14853	Cornell University Equine Hospital tour! Stations featuring intensive care unit, dentistry, endoscopy, neonatal ICU, and more!!!
March 12, 2019 Dr. Sabine Mann – Cornell Ambulatory and Production Medicine Veterinarian	It's that time of year again: 3-way, 4-way, which way to go with vaccines for my horse
April 9, 2019 Dr. Linda Mittel – Cornell Department of Population Medicine and Diagnostic Sciences	Equine parasites – the myths and the facts
May 14, 2019 Drs. Katherine Houpt and Kate Anderson – Cornell Animal Behavior Specialists	Equine Behavior 101: What do our horses whisper to us?

Seminars presented at 146 Morrison Hall unless noted otherwise

SECOND TUESDAY OF EVERY MONTH

Come learn about equine health and management topics from Cornell's equine experts!

Cornell University
Equine Hospital

Cornell Cooperative Extension